Award profile information is saved and will be available the next time an award profile is selected for a nomination.

A checkmark will indicate a profile has been completed.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I submit a nomination if I do not have all the information?

No, you must fill-in the required information on the online nomination form. Talk to the nominee directly and/or get another person (who has the missing information) to prepare the nomination materials with you.

Can I begin a student application if I have not submitted an abstract for the meeting yet?

Yes, you can begin the process of submitting a student award and travel grant application before submitting an abstract for the current year's annual meeting. Once your abstract has been submitted, add the abstract number and title to the online application before submitting the completed application.

Can I nominate someone for more than one award?

Yes. However, as each award is different, you need to submit a nomination or group of nominations that address each award's criteria. A recipient can only be selected for one award during the current year's Awards Program.

Can I nominate myself?

Self-nominations are welcomed and encouraged. The only award that does not allow self-nominations is the Alton E. Bailey Award.

Does the Award Selection Committee tell nominees who nominated them?

No, we encourage you to talk with your nominee and let them know. However, if the candidate is selected for the award, the nominator will be cc'd on the confirmation email informing the candidate that they were selected for the award.

How long will my nomination remain in consideration?

Your application package will be kept for 3 years for consideration. Please note that you must re-submit the documents every year to be considered again. An updated version of the CV may be required for some awards.
Contact Lucas Censi at lucas.censi@aocs.org to retrieve your past application package.

Can I submit my nomination by email?

All submissions must be done through the AOCS Awards Submission Portal. If you have any issues accessing the portal or questions during the submission process, please contact Lucas Censi at lucas.censi@aocs.org.

Can I get help with my nomination?

Yes, we can answer questions and help you with your submission. Contact Lucas Censi at lucas.censi@aocs.org.
